

Social media post examples

Included below are a series of suggested posts that you can use across your social media channels, whether Twitter or Facebook, to support the campaign. The images included below are available for download separately on the Cyber Aware website.

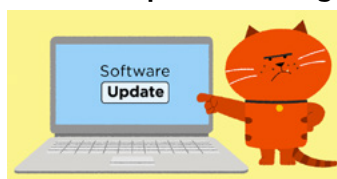

TWITTER (with cat)

General support message

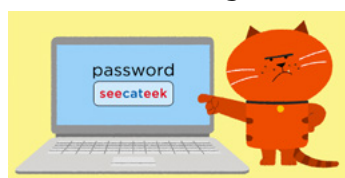

Follow @cyberawaregov to find out how to be cyber aware when you're online

Software Updates message

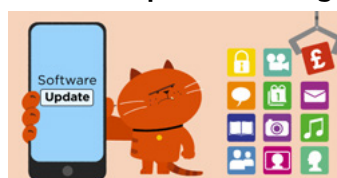

To be cyber aware always download the latest software updates, follow @cyberawaregov to find out more

Passwords message

Want to be cyber aware? Make your password stronger by using three random words, follow @cyberawaregov to find out more

Software Updates message

To be cyber aware always download the latest software updates, follow @cyberawaregov to find out more

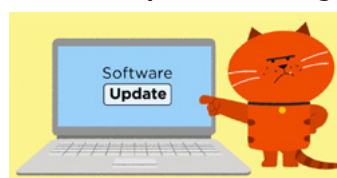

FACEBOOK (with cat)

General support message

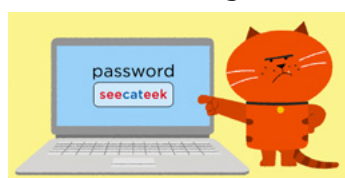

We're proud to be supporting www.cyberaware.gov.uk helping our members, staff and customers to be cyber aware when they're online. Visit the website to find out how to protect yourself from hackers and viruses.

Software Updates message

Did you know software updates contain vital security upgrades which help protect your device from viruses and hackers? Always download the latest software updates. We're supporting www.cyberaware.gov.uk where you can find out more about keeping your data, photos and emails secure online.

Passwords message

Did you know hackers can use your email to gain access to all your personal accounts? You can make your password stronger by using three random words. We're supporting www.cyberaware.gov.uk where you can find out more about keeping your data secure online.

Software Updates message

Did you know software updates contain vital security upgrades which help protect your device from viruses and hackers? Always download the latest software updates. We're supporting www.cyberaware.gov.uk where you can find out more about keeping your data, photos and emails secure online.

TWITTER (without cat)

General support message

Follow @cyberawaregov to find out how to be cyber aware when you're online

Software Updates message

To be cyber aware always download the latest software updates, follow @cyberawaregov to find out more

Passwords message

Want to be cyber aware? Make your password stronger by using three random words, follow @cyberawaregov to find out more

Software Updates message

To be cyber aware always download the latest software updates, follow @cyberawaregov to find out more

FACEBOOK (without cat)

General support message

We're proud to be supporting www.cyberaware.gov.uk helping our members, staff and customers to be cyber aware when they're online. Visit the website to find out how to protect yourself from hackers and viruses.

Software Updates message

Did you know software updates contain vital security upgrades which help protect your device from viruses and hackers? Always download the latest software updates. We're supporting www.cyberaware.gov.uk where you can find out more about keeping your data, photos and emails secure online.

Passwords message

Did you know hackers can use your email to gain access to all your personal accounts? You can make your password stronger by using three random words. We're supporting www.cyberaware.gov.uk where you can find out more about keeping your data secure online.

Software Updates message

Did you know software updates contain vital security upgrades which help protect your device from viruses and hackers? Always download the latest software updates. We're supporting www.cyberaware.gov.uk where you can find out more about keeping your data, photos and emails secure online.